About the Royal Navy & Royal Marines Charity

RNRMC is the Navy's principal charity which exists to support every sailor, marine and their families, for life. We do this by offering grants to and working with, other organisations to deliver programmes that meet the needs of our beneficiaries. We work hard, engaging with supporters to help raise awareness and funds to deliver the outcomes required for today and tomorrow.

Values

In all your dealings as a volunteer, you will be expected to abide by the values of the charity. The values are:

Beneficiary focused	We will use the best evidence available to achieve maximum impact on the lives and morale of those who serve today, or who have ever served, and their families.
Integrity	We will act with honesty and transparency in all our activities.
Commitment	We will demonstrate the highest ambition and commitment for our cause
Inclusiveness	We will recognise and celebrate diversity in the sector
Teamwork	We will always behave in a way that strengthens the sector

How this Role Makes a Difference

Our Fundraising Administrator Volunteer will support the Royal Navy & Royal Marines Charity by providing in-office administrative assistance to the Fundraising department, with a particular focus on the Individual Giving team.

As a small team, we need help to keep our administration and records up to date. Your contribution will help us run efficient campaigns, build stronger relationships with donors, and ensure our fundraising efforts make a meaningful impact on the lives of our beneficiaries.
